BACK STAGE

by bill doll

Teresa Dale, who plays Grandma in tonight's performance, understudied that role when it was played by Helen Westley in the original Broadway production .
. . . Ruth Hammond, well known to Broadway, is making her first appearance on the Ivoryton stage . . . Mitzi Green likes Ivoryton so well that she, and her parents, have taken a house here for the summer. She'll be seen in several more plays . . .
Incidentally, Mitzi's appearance in "It's a Wise Child," broke all box office records for opening weeks . . . Mr. Stiefel's Junior stock company got off to a good start with "Fly Away Home" at the Saybrook Town Hall last week. Beginning Tuesday they will present the famous play, "Ice Bound". . . Herbert G. Andrews, who designed the sets last year, has just returned from Hollywood where he did a big scenic job for the movies . . .
Judie Parrish, gave up a job as a principal with Frederic March in "The American Way," in order to return to Ivoryton . . .
Joe Pevney has been asked by the Group Theatre to tour in the title role of "Golden Boy" this fall. Joe will play that part here in a few weeks. Opposite him will be Haila Stoddard, popular Ivoryton leading lady of a few seasons ago . . . And next week another bright name in the Stiefel star parade, Glenda Farrell, direct from the movies, will join the company to play the lead in "Brief Moment."
